SAMPSON TALKS OF HIS DAYTONA SAFE-BLOWING.

Yeggmen Miss $1,000 In Stamps.

Self-Confessed Accomplice In The Daytona Postoffice Robbery Gives Some Details.

After unsuccessfully searching all of yesterday afternoon for the stamps stolen from the Daytona postoffice Wednesday, of last week, Detectives Crawford and Cahoon returned to Jacksonville this morning with John Sampson, a man who admitted he was implicated in the job.

It has been established that Sampson and a pal named Barton escaped from the Millidgeville Prison Farm of Georgia, on the 13th of last January, where they were both serving long time sentences for burglary and safe blowing.

According to Sampson's story he Barton, another yeggman called "Red," and a fourth, new member of the gang, whose name Sampson does not know, did the postoffice job.

Yesterday noon Sampson was brought to Daytona in the custody of Detectives Crawford and Cahoon, accompanied by Postoffice Inspectors Gregory, Donnelly and Brown, the purpose of the visit being an endeavor to locate the $5,000 worth of stamps which were "lifted" when the safe in the Daytona postoffice was opened.

When sufficiently "oiled" with liquor Sampson is talkative, and relates in detail the Daytona job. He says the four came to Daytona, and during their stay took their meals at Mills' and Mac's Cafes.

The quartet decided, after a thorough investigation of the office and surroundings to crack the safe early in the night. Accordingly, Sampson and Barton went on patrol, one down Magnolia avenue, the other on Beach. At this time it would have been extremely hazardous for any one to go about the postoffice but as no one showed up. It was now "Red's" turn. He and the unknown pal made a dash for the door on the north side, the Magnolia entrance. A skeleton key—they had such keys that would work nearly any known lock—had previously been found to unlock this door. "Red" pried his brace and bit, while the unknown stood guard pistol in hand, Sampson and Barton keeping a sharp eye lest some belated citizen should appear upon the scene. The sandy complexioned Yegg did a neat quick job, and they made their exit from the postoffice on schedule time, crossing Magnolia avenue and passing between the Central Garage and the Peck-Hendricks store, one carrying the postoffice cash box, the other his armload of stamps. In the rear of Dunn Brothers' store, as previously narrated in the Daily News, they cracked the cash box, pocketed the money, and threw the box in an empty barrel.

The safe was not blown as generally supposed but after the hole was bored "Red," who is an expert machinist, manipulated the lock and those who saw the safe next morning corroborate this statement. The money and stamps secured and the heavy steel box disposed of the quartet reunited on Volusia avenue where they continued west to the railroad and then went north to a point about three-fourths of

PRELIMINARY HEARING LOOKS BAD FOR DAYTONIAN.

DID SAMPSON'S GANG ROB J. W. SHIELDS?

Believed This Same Bunch Operated Here Last Winter, Getting Sparklers.

THEY ANSWER TO DESCRIPTION.

Did Sampson and his gang of yeggmen operate in Daytona last winter? This is a question that may have an affirmative answer. After the residence of J. W. Shields was entered last season, and several thousand dollars' worth of diamonds and jewelry stolen, three suspicious characters were arrested, and they answer the description of Barton, Sampson and "Red."

Sheriff E. L. Smith, who was then city marshal, made the arrest, and in a telephone conversation over the line from DeLand this morning Sheriff Smith says the three arrested last winter answer the description of the three crooks supposed to have cracked the postoffice safe last week. One had one hand off, one had a very red face, and the third answers the description of Sampson to a dot. Barton, chief of the yeggman gang, has but one hand.

When the arrest was made last winter the authorities had no direct evidence, and the trio was discharged and told to move on. Ex-Sheriff Turner was here at the time, and hears out Sheriff Smith's description of the three. Mr. Shields and James Livingston, the superintendent of his orange groves, also corroborate the description.

At the time of the arrest last winter the gang were taking their meals at a negro restaurant in Midway, and pretended to be selling articles of different kinds from house to house. J. R. Turner, who was then Sheriff, had a long talk with the bunch, and came to the conclusion that they were professional crooks, but having no evidence told them to leave the county without delay. The authorities felt quite certain at the time that the three knew something of the Shields robbery, but the evidence was lacking.

Barton and Sampson were not sent to the Millidgeville Prison Farm until some time last summer, so they could have been in Daytona last winter.

Bound Over To The Higher Court.

Rumors Of The Ill-Treatment Of A Ward Results In His Arrest.

For some time it has been rumored that A. E. Mason, an old resident of this section and now living a short distance southwest of the city, was in the habit of ill-treating a little orphan girl who has been a member of his family for several years.

Numerous complaints were lodged with Justice H. T. Titus which caused him to issue a warrant for Mr. Mason's arrest on the charge of assault and battery, and he was brought before Justice Titus Wednesday morning.

Judge J. Lee McCrory, of the Probate Court, was present to hear the testimony, which was so strong against Mason that Justice Titus at once turned the little girl over to Judge McCrory to be placed in some orphanage and bound Mason over in $100 bond to appear at the next term of the Criminal Court.

The witnesses were loath to testify in the case, but a thorough examination developed the fact that the little girl had been brutally whipped and otherwise cruelly abused.

The girl, Marion Louise Crawford, is only 13 years of age and has been with the Masons for about five years. She appears to be a bright, sunny dispositioned girl and could not hide her delight at being taken from Mason's control.

Judge McCrory returned to DeLand Wednesday afternoon, taking Marion with him, and will place her in the Epworth League Inn, at Enterprise, if possible, or at Arcadia.

No blame attaches to Mrs. Mason beyond that of allowing the alleged abuse to go on without complaint.

Mr. Mason denies cruelty in his treatment of the little girl and claims he was only administering proper correction for breaches of discipline, and in the forthcoming trial of the case the further testimony that will be offered, and the fact that it will go more into detail, may place Mr. Mason in a better light than does this preliminary hearing.

GREAT SACHEM VISITS DAYTONA

Great Sachem, Judge W. I. Metcalf of West Palm Beach, arrived in the city Wednesday to visit Osceola Tribe, No. 21, Improved Order of Red Men, at their regular meeting Wednesday night.

A goodly number of the tribe were present and enjoyed a pleasant and profitable evening which was devoted principally to addresses by the Great Sachem and members of the local tribe.

A banquet added to the enjoyment of the evening and ten applications for membership were received and referred to committees.

C. F. Burgman and W. G. Hobbs, of Osceola Tribe, showed their distinguished guest over the city, Seabreeze and Daytona Beach and vicinity during his stay here.

Judge Metcalf left today for New Smyrna to visit the tribe at that place and will go from there to St. Augustine on a similar errand.

ENTERTAINED AT CARDS.

Mrs. W. E. Blodgett entertained a party of ladies at bridge-whist Wednesday afternoon at her home, on South Ridgewood avenue, in honor of her sisters, Mrs. I. A. Barnes of Minneapolis, and Mrs. Al. Blodgett, of Fairbault, Minn.

Eight tables of hand-somely gowned ladies contested for the prizes, which were won by Mrs. E. T. Merrill, Mrs. C. A. Stark, of Cincinnati, guest of Mrs. L. O. Rawson, and Mrs. Thos. H. White, the first, second and third prizes being secured by the ladies in the order named.

The floral decorations, which were very beautiful, were from Jacksonville, and consisted of carnations and greens of various kinds.

A BANKER IS GUILTY.

(By United Press.)
PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 18.—W. W. Ramsey, former bank president, charged with bribing councilmen to secure the election of the German National Bank of Pittsburgh, as the city depository, was today found guilty by a sealed verdict returned late yesterday and read at the opening of the court.

Councilman J. T. Klein, to whom Ramsey was convicted of paying $17,500 to secure passage of the depository ordinance was placed on trial immediately after reading the verdict against the banker.

A BRIDGE WHIST PARTY.

Mrs. A. B. Foster gave a whist party and luncheon Tuesday afternoon at her beautiful Ridgewood home, in honor of her guest, Mrs. Wilmont, of Cleveland, O., and Mrs. Barnes of Minneapolis.

About thirty ladies were present and enjoyed a pleasant rivalry for the prizes at bridge whist, which resulted in Mrs. A. Hilliard securing first and Mrs. E. T. Merrill the second prize.

ALL LAUGH AT WILMANS

Everybody got a good laugh last night at Wilman's Opera House. Hooligan always showed up at the psychological moment and relieved the embarrassing situation, except the one time he sat down upon the glue keg. In this instance when assistance helped him from the keg the "embarrassing situation" was rather intensified.

Manager Burgman is giving a season of good performances at the Wilmans and merits a full house at every performance.

TO MAKE A TREATY.

(By United Press.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Having for its object a treaty between the United States, Canada and Mexico to eliminate litigation over waterways, the first North American Conservation Congress met today in the East Room of the White House. After formal greetings were exchanged between representatives and President Roosevelt the Conference met in the diplomatic room of the State Department where it will hold sessions until the end of the week.

Will Beer Go Up?

(By United Press.)
ST. LOUIS, Feb. 18.—Mrs. W. J. Lemp was granted a divorce from her brewer husband and given $5,000 a month yearly and the custody of the son today. The father will give a $30,000 bond for payment of alimony.

Hankins says:

We have just received a nice assortment of the famous
IDEAL HAIR BRUSHES
in both white and black bristles. Prices range from $1 to $2.50. Don't fail to call and see them.

HANKINS, The Druggist,

AT THE PLACE
Where Volusia Meets Beach.

Plenty of Amusements Now.

Daytona seems to be getting exactly what it has needed this week, a great deal more excitement and amusement.

At the Gator Theatre Mark Tucker, comic shouter, is pleasing good houses, in addition to the program of moving pictures and illustrated songs.

At the Crystal Theatre the best program of the season is being presented to full houses nightly. Besides the regular program of moving pictures the vaudeville program is the best of the season. Mlle. Dolores pleases in a musical act, and Claude Austin has made a decided hit in his eccentric juggling act. He is the best seen here in picture show vaudeville.

Then Wednesday night came "Hooligan in New York" at Wilman's opera house, a comedy drama that pleased all.

Friday night comes the King & Tucker circus, not the largest but claimed to be the best of its size and better than many larger, and to top off with Allen's Minstrels, the largest colored minstrel show en route, comes highly recommended for a matinee and night under canvas Monday, Washington's birthday.

CHAIR LINCOLN SAT IN WHEN SHOT—HOUSE WHERE HE DIED.

The house across the street from Ford's theater, Washington, where Abraham Lincoln was taken after he was shot, is now owned by the United States government. It contains a splendid collection of Lincoln relics and is run as a museum. It is the purpose of the government to purchase the relics and throw the place open to the public. It is one of the chief points of interest to tourists who visit Washington.

Seabreeze News
SEABREEZE, Feb. 18—Miss M. E. Brown of Daytona, was visiting the Seabreeze High School and calling on friends on Valley street yesterday afternoon.
The improvements being made on R. C. Mansfield's cottage, on Valley street, are completed, including painting and cement front walk, and it is now a very attractive winter home. The lot contains a large number of fine orange and grapefruit trees, which are still hanging with the golden fruit altho' the blossoms of a new season are beginning to put forth. Mr. Mansfield's family consists of his wife and daughter, Mrs. Woodward, and her young son, and he expects they expect to spend their winters regularly at Seabreeze. Mr. Mansfield is a prominent business man of Winchester, Ky.
M. L. Waggoner left Saturday for Evansville, Ind., and expects to be gone a week or ten days.
Lumber is on the ground for the erection of a bungalow for Mr. Uebelhor on the lot purchased by him near the Country Club house some weeks ago. It is understood that Mr. Uebelhor will build something quite artistic in the way of a permanent winter home.
Mrs. S. S. Jones has recently received a fine lot of citrus fruit trees from the Oklahoma nursery, among them the Ruby, Conner, and the Hart's Late, also a few peach trees. They were set on a plot of ground recently grubbed and cleared for the purpose west of the Seabreeze Sanitarium.
Work on John E. Garfield's bungalow on the corner of Earl and Grandview avenue is progressing. L. M. Drake has the work in charge.
William Babbington, of St. Augustine, visited his mother at Dr. E. E. Dayton's Sunday.
Curt Gillette, one of our ambitious young men, last summer bought a lot on Pinewood avenue, north, and this week lumber is on the ground and the frame work up for a two-story, six-room cottage. C. C. Gillette will have charge of the building.
Mr. and Mrs. Bianchi are looking forward to a visit to their son Frank Bianchi, of New York, some time during March.
Canada's Inland Sea.

The Modern
Seven Wonders
Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes
upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.
The Placid, Pelucid Halifax River.
Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy ver-andas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers
beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck
and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pican perch
a fat mullet, and that fish hawk stu-
gling upward with his floundering load
he snatched from the water.
See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.
The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.
Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies,
and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss
sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes
in the most delightful settings.
Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.
No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty
from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"
Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.
Why the Architect of the Universe
chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.
Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park
And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where-else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.
Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or eve callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.
For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.
Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane.
The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.
As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden gloves.

In Great Luck.
"I have been looking over my financial operations," said Mr. Easgo. "I must say they are more successful than usual."
"Have you been making large profits?"
"No. I don't expect anything like that."
"But you say you were successful?"
"Comparatively successful. During the month I have loaned money to five friends, and only three of them have quit speaking to me."—Washington Star.

The Editor's Sally.
City Editor—What do you mean by saying in this robbery story that
"Brown was knocked down and relieved of a hundred dollars?" Were you ever robbed yourself? New Reporter—No, sir. City Editor—That accounts for it. If you'd been robbed you wouldn't describe the loss of a hundred dollars as a relief.—St. Louis Republic.

Modern Art.
Art in our time seems like an ir-descent oil spread about on the surface of the muddy waters of our civilization; it and life don't mix.—London Saturday Review.
A Patient Sufferer.
Boy (to tramp)—Don't you get awful tired of doin' nothin', mister? Tramp —Terrible! But I never complains.
Everybody has their troubles.—Philadelphia Inquirer.
Trying to Explain.
Howell—What did you mean by saying that I would never set the world on fire? Powell—I meant that you were too much of a gentleman to do it.—Exchange.
